YOU'RE THE APEROL TO MY SPRITZ

HI, I'M AMY! I'm a watercolor and illustration artist based in Portland, OR, with roots in Wisconsin and Washington, DC. With a decade of experience in museum communications under my belt, I picked up watercolors in 2017 as a means of self-care after a very bad vacation, and it turned out to be the right move. The initial sketches from those first few months that followed turned into commissions, custom designs for organizations, and eventually the prints, posters, and stationery you'll find here.

All of the designs you see between these pages are my original hand-painted watercolor and ink creations. Each one has a story; I hope that the playful, colorful, and joy-packed feel of my products speak to the values you hold for your business and customers. I look forward to working with you!
